1. Objective

DARPG monitors the implementation of recommendations given in the NeSDA 2021 report through monthly review meetings and e-governance conferences in which all States/UTs/Central Ministries/Departments participate. This monthly report institutionalises the nation's endeavours for improved delivery of e-services and prepare States/UTs for NeSDA 2023

The objective of the monthly progress report is as follows:

A. Saturation of e-services

- Provision of all identified 56 mandatory e-services in all States/UTs
- Increase in delivery of total number of e-services provided
- Identification of all G2B and G2C services provided

B. Promote faceless and suo-moto entitlement-based delivery of services

Monitor improvement in the number of services provided facelessly, i.e., without any physical visits, paperwork and human intervention. Provision of e-services to the citizens as per their entitlement, based on their socio-economic status

C. Unified Portal

Encourage provision of all e-services through a single unified service delivery portal

D. Identification of bottlenecks and dissemination of best practices

Recognize the existing knowledge gaps and bring government and citizens closer through next generation administrative reforms. Learn from best practices to inspire and upgrade the existing e-service delivery mechanisms in place

2. Introduction

DARPG has designed the NeSDA – Way Forward dashboard to monitor the status of implementation of recommendations of NeSDA 2021, in line with the focus areas of e-governance. The NeSDA framework covers G2C and G2B services across seven sectors, viz., Finance, Labour & Employment, Education, Local Governance & Utility Services, Social Welfare (including Health, Agriculture & Home Security), Environment (including Fire) and Tourism.

The July Monthly Report for States/UTs incorporates sector-wise analysis of e-services approach and presents deeper insights into services of Education sector. The report highlights the sub-themes of e-services in Education sector and the number of e-services provided by each State/UT under each sub-theme.

The common citizen-centric sub-themes of e-services in education sector are identified across all States/UTs which encompass a wide range of e-services.

The aim of sector-wise analysis is to:

- Identify the major sub-themes/categories of e-services in each sector that may be provided by all States/UTs
- Set benchmark of the number of e-services that can be provided in a State/UT
- Enable all States/UTs to increase their number of e-services through information dissemination

The NeSDA Way Forward Monthly Report for States/UTs, July 2023 is based on the inputs provided by States/UTs on NeSDA – Way Forward dashboard, as of 6th August, 2023.

5. e-Services under Education Sector

Out of the seven identified sectors of NeSDA framework, education sector is a vital component of a thriving society, enabling citizens to access quality education resources and opportunities, improve their qualifications, and foster socio-economic progress. Digital platforms leverage these services to ensure equitable access, user convenience, and efficient service delivery, empowering citizens to pursue education and skill development.

The sector-wise analysis aims to assess and compare the e-services provided across all States/UTs in education sector through identification of citizen-centric sub-themes and highlighting state-specific opportunities to transition offline services to online platforms.

Embracing digital technologies and fostering partnerships between government agencies, business entities and citizens is crucial to realize the full potential of online services in the education sector. This may significantly enhance the overall education e-service delivery.

6. Best Practices

A trend has been observed towards integration of portals for citizen service delivery as unified portals for service delivery have been developed by several States/UTs. These provide users a unified access point for a variety of services and tie into the best practices that NeSDA encourages. By seamlessly integrating services across departments or jurisdictions, they provide better governance and service availability. These also help ensure that all citizen entitlements are portable and available on the cloud. Many of these portals have also digitally transformed services to enhance ease of doing business at the State / UT level and unified a variety of technologies, both established and emerging, for decision support and development activities.

Unified and seamless delivery of services is a core tenet of the NeSDA framework and strengthening such portals will enhance the digital empowerment of citizens. Some of the portals that are highlighted in this section for best practices in unified service delivery include the following:

S.No.	Theme	State/UT	Initiative Name
1	Learning Module	Gujarat	G-Shala
2	Single Window for Education	Madhya Pradesh	Right To Education Portal
3	Single Window for Scholarship	Nagaland	Common Scholarship Portal
