National Centre for Good Governance
An Autonomous Institution of Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances, Government of India

Summary of Annual Report 2019-20

National Centre for Good Governance

About the Centre:

The National Centre for Good Governance (NCGG) is an autonomous institute under the aegis of Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances, Government of India.

The NCGG has been set up to assist in bringing about governance reforms through studies, knowledge sharing and promotion of good ideas. It seeks to carry out policy relevant research and prepare case studies; curate capacity building courses for civil servants from India and other developing countries; provide a platform for sharing of existing knowledge and proactively seek out and develop ideas for their implementation in the government, both at the National & International Level.

Mandate:

To promote Good Governance by Capacity Building on Public Policy and Governance at both National and International level, carrying out studies on issues relating to governance, organizing consultations, workshops, seminars, talks to promote improved governance and undertaking initiatives for citizen centric governance.

Objectives:

The objectives and functions of NCGG are:

- i. To be the apex think tank of the country in guiding and implementing Citizen Centric good Governance reforms – administrative, social, financial and political.
- ii. To function as a national repository on information on best practices, initiatives and methodologies that promote good Governance, e-Governance initiatives, change management and capacity building within the Government.
- iii. To work towards resolution of key issues in governance, analysis of policy and programme implementation, develop action plans, support governance reforms and provide help in developing synergy across various sectors and Ministries/Departments of GoI, and State Governments.
- iv. To initiate research into various aspects of regulatory and developmental administration, urban and regional planning, sustainable development, social sector programmes and public management/ public policy with special reference to agrarian issues.
- v. To coordinate and organize training programmes sponsored by various government, non-government and foreign agencies. NCGG would provide direction, guidance and capacity building inputs on governance and management issues to the Central /State Government organizations and Central Training Institutes and State ATIs in the form of research papers, best practices on governance reforms, policy analysis and options.
- vi. To hold National Consultations on topical issues, involving all the concerned stakeholders, with a view to evolve consensus with regard to the adoption and execution of policies in the public interest. To interact with other national and international organizations, in and outside government, engaged in research and training in subject areas of mutual interest.

Governing Body & Management Committee
